THE SLAVE TRADE.

The New York correspondent of the Charleston Mercury says, "The slave trade, like many other trades, has its managers, its brokers, or go-betweens, and its capitalists. The first class is composed of Cubans, Brazilians, Portuguese, and occasionally Americans-the latter from New York, Boston, and other down-east ports, and Baltimore. Most of them were originally engaged in the legitimate African trade, and, while in quest of palm oil and ivory, were drawn into the slave business by be coming acquainted with its facilities and profits. They are perfectly familiar with the African Coast and Rivers, and are acclimated to the country. Of course they are thoroughly dare-devils by nature, for no other men would assume the fearful risks of the traffic. The second class, or go-betweens, are very pleasant, oily elegantly dressed, and be-diamonded persons mostly Cubans, who put up at our best hotels visit the great watering places, lounge in visit the great watering places, lounge in the coulisses of the opera, mark the time with their heavily jewelled fingers, and indulge in ostentatiously uttered "bravas." "Our best society" welcomes them as it does all other gaudy adventurers.

It is in the wealthy but vulgar circles to be the state of t which their superficial attractions and indomitable impudence gain them ready access, that they pick up capital for the trade. Confidence once established, the subject is Connected once established, the surject is skillfully introduced, speculative avarice is aroused, and the man who swindles his fellow creature in the banking, brokering, or other husiness, is very easily reconciled to the delinquencies of the slave trade. It will be a margificantly on at least it does will pay magnificently, or at least it does seven cases out of ten, and that is all he wants to know. He is introduced to the first class, know. He is introduced to the first class, the managers, and negotiations are soon closed. The contracts entered into, though fraudulent in law, are, without doubt as faithfully and honorably observed as many others that are invested with every legal solemnity. I know of two ladies now attracting admiration at a fashionable watering place, who invested in a vanture of this ing place, who invested in a venture of this kind not long ago, and as a result, have augmented their banking accounts, one to the extent of $23,000 and the other $16,000.

The head-quarters of the traffic in this city maked into echo, "How so?" demanded are mainly South, William, Broad and Water streets. Two vessels are now fitting out here for the business,"

A mat a spicinal voice for a homory," he reputationally exclaimed, as her last note modeled into echo, "How so?" demanded the beloved one, in astonishment. "Because the scho repeats the lay," replied the uniscreant,

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

Fillibuster Walker attempted to leave New Orleans on October 4th, for Nicaragua, with two or three hundred young men. He tried to avoid the neurality laws, by asserting that the company were bound for Chiriqui gold diggings. Collector Hatch stopped him. The British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico have orders to arrest all fillibusters. Several of the San Francisco papers recommend hanging him as a cure for his fillibuster mania.

A duel was threatened between Billy Mulligan, the great expatriated, and Capt. Reviere, the bogus Zounve.

The latest Yankee notion is in the dry goods line in New York. Large dry goods stores there have an eating, smoking, and drinking saloon for their customers

Kansas election on October 4th accepted the Wyandotte Constitution. It is expected she will be admitted as a State at the coming session of Congress.

The annexation of Florida West to Alabama is exciting some discussion in both States.

A good deal of gold dust was arriving at Leavenworth from the Pike's Peak dig-gings. A late express brought $12,487.85.

Judge Haun of the Haun House, Marys ville, has been appointed Senator for California, in the place of D. C. Broderick.

The British Consul at Mazatlan has been detected in landing $50,000 smuggled merchandize there.

The King of the Sandwich Islands lately shot a Mr. Neilson. The cause is an al-leged intimacy with his "Mistress." Other accounts say intimacy with the Queen.

The Buffulo Republic indulges itself in the following: We predict that in less than ten years a steamboat will be constructed to run on our lakes which will be longer than the Great Eastern, and capable of carrying three thousand passengers and three thousand tons of freight, and that she will make over thirty miles an hour, and be capable of running in winter as well as in summer.

The property upon which is the Natural Bridge in Virginia has recently changed hands for the sum of $12,000. Next to the Falls of Niagara it is the greatest natural curiosity in the United States.

Prof. La Mountain, the geronaut, about whose fate so much anxiety has been felt, whose fate so much anxiety has been felt, is safe. He and Mr. Haddock, came into Ottowa, Oct. 3, having landed 150 miles north of Ottawa, in the great Canada wilderness. They were brought out by Indian guides in bark canoes. They travelled in their balloon 300 miles, and were up in the air only from four to five hours. For over four days they were in the wilderness without food, and no means of striking a fire. They were rescued most providen-tially by a Mr. Cameron, who was hunting timber with Indian guides.

A specific seems to be found for delirium tremens in the discovery of the medicinal qualities of Canabias Indica, or Indian hemp. The last clinical report of the Savannah Poor-House and Hospital, made by Dr. J. C. Habershem, embraces the treat-ment of six patients suffering from this malady, all of whom were treated by this subtle agent alone, and with the most satisfactory

A work is announced by Capt, Drayton to prove that "Great Britain has been, and will be again, within the tropies."

THE LAST FROM SARATOGA.—Jones sat blissfully listening to the voice of his ador-able Arabella as it reverberated her plain-tive ditty in the caverns of Luzerne. "What a splendid voice for a hennery," he

THE HUDSON'S BAY COMPANY CLAIMING

THE STREETS OF VICTORIA. We have long been aware that the Hudson's Bay Company claim the ownership of the streets of Victoria. In fact, in 1858 their title was so far asserted as to sell a portion of the street where Johnson and WharL streets unite at Victoria bridge. They also shut up one street at the south end of the fort, and opened another a little beyond. Besides this, they promised in 1858 to the purchasers of lots on View street, that that street should be opened from Broad to Wharf street. Instead of fulfilling their promise like an honest company, that street was actually closed, instead of opened, by blocking up the west end by a large brick Police-building. It is true that since May last-when the Government reserve between Yates and the block-house was seized by the Company, with the consent of His Excellency-a small alley has been opened where View street ought to be: but even that by some unknown authority. assumed by the Police Commissioner, has been closed to vehicles. That authority however will soon be tested, if the obstacle is not speedily removed, -as purchasers of lots in the reserve are entitled to its use. Had it not been for our timely exposure of the intentions of the Company, the line of Wharf street would have been deflected like an elbow from Reid's corner southerly. The last act however of the honorable Hudson's Bay Company is not only contemptible, but "unjust and oppressive;" although His Excellency Gov. Douglas, in his dispatch of Oct. 26, 1858, said that the oftenasserted charge in England that the Company "had made an unjust and oppressive use of their power in this country is altogether unfounded." It appears that the agents of the Company sold last week all the trees on our streets to a party for firewood. Mr. Pemberton, Police Commissioner, at the request of some property holders cut down the two oaks at the corner of Government and Vates streets but it was no sooner done than Dr. Tuzo presented a bill to him for $20! $10 each! Opposite Mr. Adams' property on Douglas and View streets, two trees were cut down, Mr. A. forbid the parties, but in his absence they were felled. He then claimed the trees as they were intersected every way by his property. But Dr. Tuzo threatened him with $500 damages, assuring him that the trees belonged to the Company. Up Fort street a number of oaks have been felled. Aside from the Vandalism which would sell and cut down a single tree for a few paltry dollars, where it was no obstruction to pavel, but an ornament to the street,-the ac' of itself is a foul wrong, - unwarrantable, -and without a solitary particle of right to support it, either in law or equity, We cannot well conceive how that the agents of the Company could do such a scurvy trick,-such an act of Vandalism, except that they have been influenced to do so by a resident San Francisco legal land-shark, Selling the trees therefore may be to maintain color of title to the etreets. But that will prove useless. Viewing the town site as their private property,when they sold the lots, they forever conveyed away their claim to the streets. But the town site is not private property; alfrom the first settlement of the Colony. As street?

private property the Company have no claim to it which will stand the test of law or equity. It is to all intents and purposes in the same condition as the lands of Cowichan, Nootka, or Cape Scott; and the funds derived from the sale as justly belong to the Territorial Revenue of the Colony. Taking then the town site to be like other lands, subject to the conditions of the Grant (which we will hereafter prove) we find that one of the conditions says, "that the said Company shall (for the purposes of colonization) dispose of all lands hereby granted to them at a reasonable price, except so much thereof as may be required for public purposes." The streets are used for public purposes,and for that reason the Company have no more right to them nor the trees, than any one else. Their act of selling trees on the public streets, and their intimidation, deserves the strongest marks of public censure,-and merits the attention of the proper authorities. Besides if our connection with the H. B. Co. is not speedily ended, we may expect many more such trumped-up claims, as their claim to the streets, which they will want us to pay for.

We take pleasure in announcing the safe return yesterday of Capt. Torrens from his expedition to Queen Charlotte's Island. and the North-West coast. He appears in fine health and spirits, notwithstanding his arduous and adventurous explorations .-From Fort Simpson he came to Nanaimo on the H. B. Co.'s steamer Labouchere; thence by a small schooner here. He speaks highly of the attention which he received from II. B. Co. officials in the North. The report of his explorations will be handed in to the Government shortly; and we are assured that it will contain matter of sufficient interest to make the publication advisable. We have seen $4 in amalgam taken from Nass river, the result of one day's washing with a rocker. The gold is very fine, like flour, but of a good quality. The river was high at the time: but it is presumed that were it lower, far richer deposits could be found on the bars. The slate formation prevails; and the general character of the country is highly auriferous. The mountains on Fraser river are comparatively mole-hills to those up north. Capt. T.'s explorations have proved that gold in paying quantities can be found at 54° 40'- Capt. Denman and others were at Fort Simpson. Major Downie with two men had at last accounts gone up Skeena river, with the intention of crossing to Fort Alexander.

Wells, Fargo & Co. shipped per Northerner, $5,400; MacDonald & Co., $3,-500; others, $25,000. Total, $33,900.

The Northerner arrived from San Francisco, Oregon, and Puget Sound on Friday Morning, and left the same day for New Dungeness, to take on board General Scott for San Francisco.

Over thirty buildings, wood and brick, are now in course of construction. More lumber has been sold during the last month for building purposes in Victoria than in any one month since the settlement of the town.

We learn that the electors of Sooke and Nanaimo have been notified as well as the electors of other districts to send in their claims to the Sheriff.

Schooner Reporter, consigned to Price & Co., arrived on Saturday evening with a cargo of lumber from Puget Sound.

The steamer Otter towed the ship Carnatic, Mannock, loaded with spars for England, to sea on Saturday evening.

When will the palings and buildings on Government street, between Vates street though it has unjustifiably been so claimed and the Bastion, be removed from the NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

The Halton Journal of Sept. 21 says that at the Centenary Celebration of the Conquest of Quebec in Hamilton, Sir Allan McNab occupied the chair. In proposing the health of the Governor General Sir Allan observed "that it was the fate of every representative of Sovereignty in this Province to have their fair days of popularity and their troubles towards the close of their administrations. From this fate the present Governor General had not been exempt. He only mentioned this as Sir Edmund Head would leave this Province most likely for ever (cheers) in the course of a few days." It is to be hoped the probability of his leaving will soon become a reality, as his presence here disgusts every liberal politician.
